City Ready To Dedicate Magnificent New School Building This Evening

Formal Exercises In Out- standing Community Event Will Be Brief

Under the auspices of the school trustees under whose direction it was reared, Sierra Madre's pride, its new $210,000 school building, will be formally dedicated tonight—just a year and two days after the people by a two-thirds vote sanctioned the bond issue that made it possible.

The exercises will be brief so that the public may devote a good part of the evening to an inspection of the building itself and to the work of the pupils, which will be on exhibition in the various school rooms.

The affair gives promise of becoming the most important community event and attracting the largest outpouring of citizens in the city's history and the public breast is expected to swell with new pride as a new and deeper community interest is rooted in the splendid new school.

Heads of the schools of many San Gabriel cities and delegations of citizens from many of the towns will be present, for the fame of Sierra Madre's new school has spread far and wide and it has already the envy of many cities and the educators.

The doors of the building, now complete save for the landscaping, will be thrown open early.

The official program of the exercises appears on this page of THE NEWS.

Family Gathering Celebrates Fifty- Fifth Anniversary

A family gathering at the home of Mrs. E. H. Porter, 145 East Alegria avenue, on Sunday, celebrated the 55th wedding anniversary of Mrs. Porter's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Ham of 180 North Mountain Trail avenue.

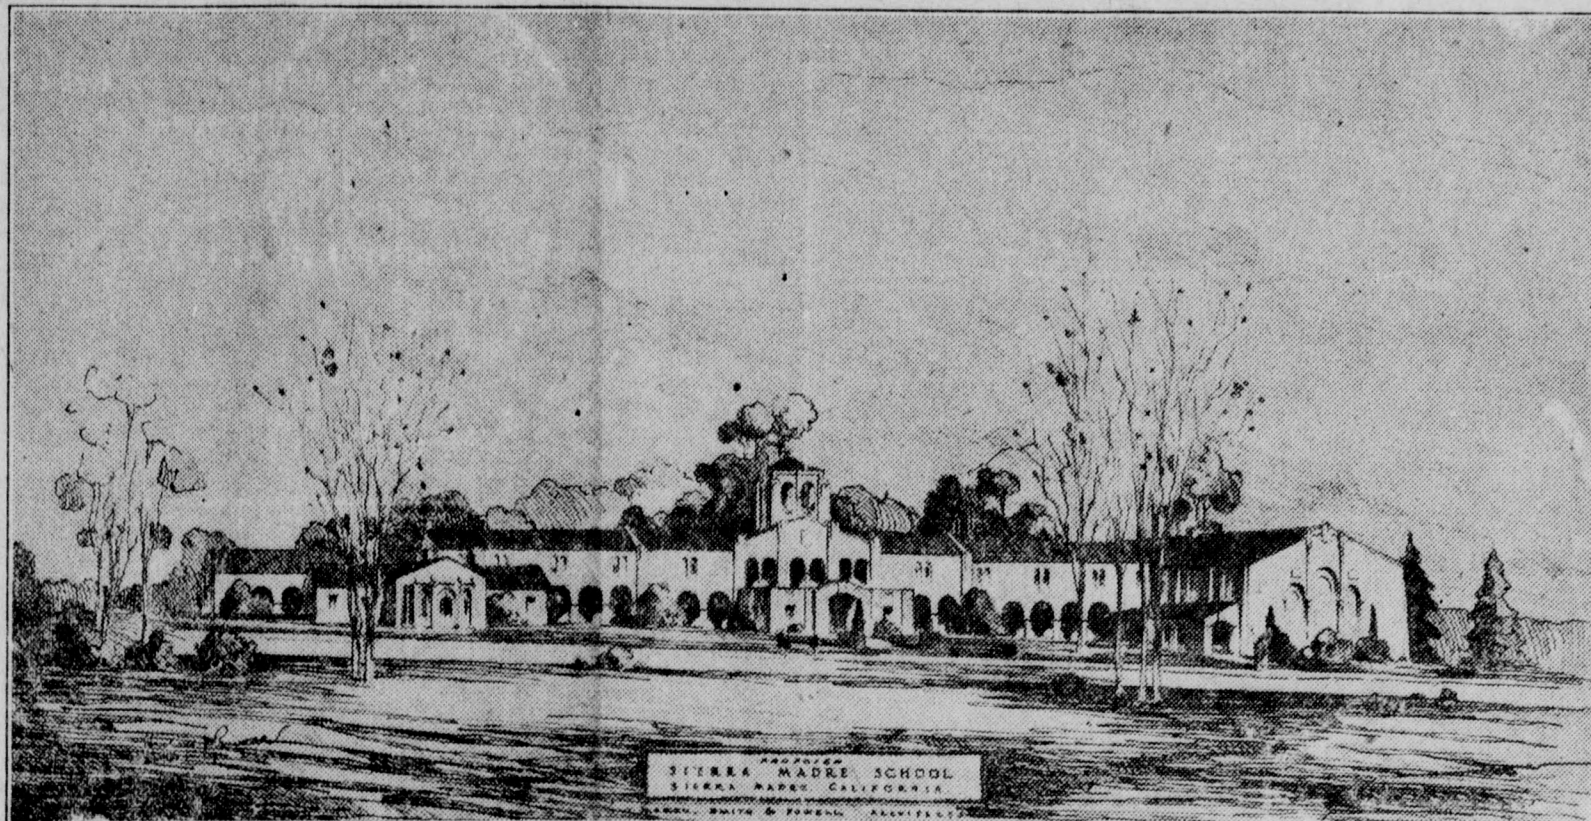

Mr. and Mrs. Ham celebrated their golden wedding at the Porter home five years ago. They have been residents of Sierra Madre for the past year, coming here from Long Beach. Mr. Ham was born in Maine and Mrs. Ham in Michigan, spending the greater part of their lives in Illinois, until moving to California 10 years ago.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Farley of Compton and Robert Farway, of Colorado.

Sierra Madre Comrades will meet San Gabriel in a big basketball game Tuesday evening, December 16, at the Congregational church. Everyone is cordially invited to witness this real game for real sportsmen.

Misses Tim and Beth Manning of Sierra Madre spent the Thanksgiving holidays as the guests of Barbara Phillips, at Monolith, Kern County, on a real California cattle ranch.

Three Great Features Of Model Plant

Interior Arrangement Of School Building Ap- proaches Perfection

Quite as striking as the beautiful Spanish exterior of the City's new school is its remarkable interior arrangement. It has impressed all who have visited the plant—particularly architects and builders who pronounce it nothing short of ideal as to safety, efficiency and appearance.

A prime consideration of the trustees was a maximum of sunlight and fresh air. To this they which do away with stairs on the different elevations of the corridor which is a safety element.

Classrooms 4, 3 and 1 continue down the rear of the first floor between the main entrance wing and the east wing. In the center or main entrance wing are, at the west side of the main wing corridor, the principal's office, office of the secretary and the book room. On the east side of the corridor is the board room and clinic.

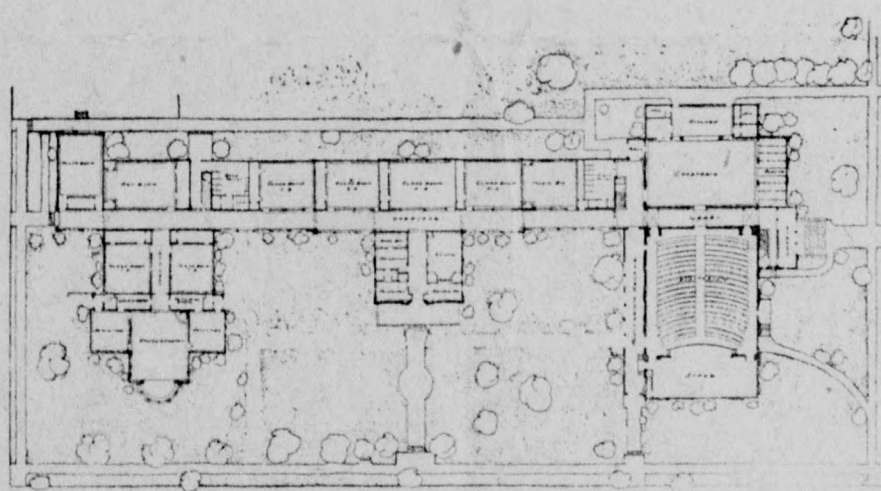

The latter is deserving of special mention. It contains bedside wash basins, foot baths and long porcelain stands, sufficient room for modern apparatus for the determination and treatment of children's minor diseases and room for emergency beds. Storage space for surgical supplies is also included.

assured of the best scientifically prepared foods for their noon-day lunches.

Electrical refrigeration has been provided and porcelain and tile sinks are used in the kitchen proper while modern culinary utensils reduce the work of the school dietitian considerably.

On the second floor in the west wing, is the sun deck where children who need additional sunlight and air and those convalescing from illness may rest during the school hours and during specified rest periods. Back of this sun deck is another diet kitchen, to permit the feeding of children that are ill without necessitating a trip to the cafeteria. The floors of the sun-deck are concrete and it is surrounded by a wall, insuring safety and privacy.

Across the corridor starting from the west wing, the second added about every other desirable feature that it is possible to get under one roof. And they extend into every department of the institution and into every detail.

Starting with the west elevation of the building, the first floor contains a remarkable layout of modern sunlit rooms. The west bay facing front on Highland avenue contains the kindergarten, flanked on either side by Activities rooms "A" and "B."

The kindergarten proper is 24 feet wide by 23 feet deep exclusive of the curved bay at the front which contains a small pool. The window arrangement provides for a maximum of sunlight at all times from the west, south and east exposures. Back of Activity room "B" are retiring rooms Continuing east along the corridor past classrooms 4, 3, 2 & 1 to the east wing of the building we enter the music room where all musical activities of the school will be carried on.

In the east wing proper is the auditorium, 56 x 59 feet exclusive of the stage. This beautiful arched room with a seating capacity in excess of 600, rises the full height of the building and has a gradually inclined floor. In the rear is a projecting room where a motion picture machine will be installed, making it possible to use modern instructional methods with the motion picture as an added factor.

The stage of this auditorium with sufficient floor space to permit the production of school plays floor contains classroom 12, 11 and 10, which run from the extreme west up to the center second floor bay.

In this bay are a rest room for teachers, library and a sun-deck for teachers, permitting rest periods for the instruction staff, in the sun and fresh air.

Continuing along the second floor corridor east are classrooms 9, 8 and 7, approximately the same size as those in the same relative position on the first floor.

At each end of the second floor corridor are lavatory rooms for boys and girls while in all corridors are drinking fountains of tile and porcelain.

UNSETTLED WEATHER FOR THIS WEEK-END

Partly cloudy, unsettled weather for the week-end was predicted by Col. H. B. Hersey at Sierra Madre's Weather observatory this morning. There is a possibility that there will be a light sprinkling but little probability of rain of any importance. The temperature will be moderate. Beyond Sunday the weather is uncertain, with the possibility that a rain that has been working its way in from the Pacific will arrive shortly.

NEW MASONIC OFFICERS TO BE INSTALLED DECEMBER 30
Leslie Renaker, inspector of the 90th District, will install the new officers of the Masonic Lodge on Tuesday, December 30, and Justus Kraft will act as master of ceremonies. A Billy Murphy dinner will precede the installation.

Lillian C. Nordstrom of Washington D. C. is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. Nordstrom of 91 East Laurel avenue. Miss Nordstrom made the trip here by airplane and plans to return by air after Christmas.

Tired Soul Thrilled By Sierra Madre

Sojourner Marvels At Transformation As City Prepares For Xmas

By MARILYN SPERRY

As a wayfarer and a sojourner in this little city of the hills, I have been much interested in the last week's transformation of the business section.

I have lived much in big cities and life has handed out some pretty hard jolts, so awhile back my doctor told me I must have rest and quiet and forget about business for a time, and he told me of Sierra Madre. I had never even heard the name.

His description sounded good to a tired soul, a little town upon the mountain side, out of the rush, sleepy and restful and beautiful and with kind people and plenty of sunshine. So a roof was found to cover me and I came to Sierra Madre. It was all the doctor had said and how I have rested and slept. To be perfectly frank, I rather had the idea that that was what everybody else in town was doing, too.

But some calls from the outside cannot be ignored and I have been thinking regretfully of Christmas shopping. I couldn't forget all the kind friends in the hurly-burly even if the exchequer is low this year, and I dreaded the trip into the city I thought was necessary.

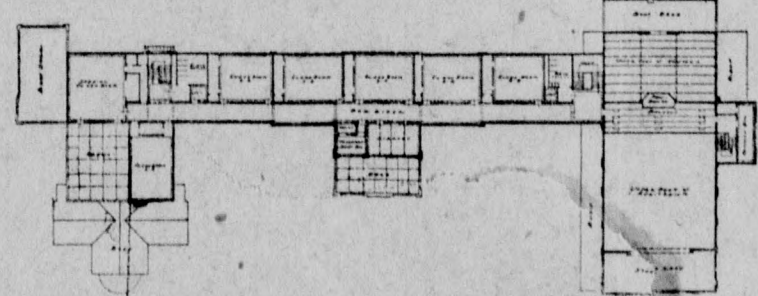

So last week when the little paper came I sat up and took notice. That front page gave me hopes that I could find what I wanted right here. Then I had to come down town after dark two nights ago and behold, my sleepy little town was all waked up! Glittering Christmas trees lining the sidewalks, festoons of greens and wreaths everywhere and nearly all the store windows decked out in holiday trimmings. So I have been window shopping and my troubles are all blown away.

Why do you people here hide your lights under such dense bushel baskets? Till this happened, I had an idea the only things to buy here were the necessities for living, food and drink and light and heat and gasoline. But I found books of the best, beautiful furnishings for the most elaborate home, the most individual and attractive line of pottery I have seen in years, every conceivable kind of attractive packages of California goodies for the folks way back East, useful and ornamental art novelties of every description. And plenty of the more utilitarian things, loads of things to wear and all sorts of fripperies to delight the feminine heart.

Since coming here, I have gradually learned of the famous writers and musicians and artists who live here. They show good taste. I realize you have a high type of residents and now I am beginning to believe your business folks are up to that standard too, only they shouldn't be so quiet about it. In this day of fierce competition, even in this quiet corner, they must "tell the world."

I had been feeling a little blue about Christmas, away from every one, but now I am all warmed up inside. Christmas seems coming to me. And I found out that the good people of this town are quietly preparing to make Christmas "merry" for those here who are having hard luck for any reason, for the shut-ins and the lonely ones. I am going to drop a tiny raisin or two into those pies, it will help my own Christmas along.

So these last nights there has been an added peace and happiness in my heart as I have watched the moon rise over these wonderful hills, flooding the whole world with beauty, and as the sun has come up behind that mountain (Continued on Page Six) for the kindergarten pupils while connecting doors from the kindergarten proper to the activity rooms on each side allow easy communication.

Back of activities room "A" is the transition room, while in the rear of activities room "B" is the first floor locker and wash room for the larger boys.

At the extreme rear corner of the west wing is the art room, a large well lighted studio 30 1/2 feet long by 23 feet wide. This is flanked by classrooms 5 and 6, all facing on the main corridor which runs the approximate width of the entire building.

and in fact large enough for a professional performance, is divided from the auditorium by a proscenium arch from which the curtain hangs.

The stage itself is elevated to permit a good view of it from all sections of the hall proper and modern electrical stage lighting effects bring it to perfection.

In the basement of the building is the cafeteria, 56 by 37 feet exclusive of the kitchen, storage rooms and refrigeration plants. This important feature of the plant is equipped with new furniture and modern steam tables, stoves and other restaurant appliances and the children will be

A thrill awaits every citizen who attends the dedication of the city's new school tonight aside from the one he or she will get when they first enter the magnificent new building.

It will be an exhibition of work accomplished by the children of each grade and shown in the rooms in which it was created. You will marvel at much of it. Every parent will be very proud.

Work of the character that created this exhibition is going on in the school constantly. It is a part of the system of teaching by creating—by visualizing, stirring the imagination and making the mind alert and the fingers deft.

The particular things that will be shown tonight by every grade beginning with the kindergarten, have been made by the pupils since the children went back to their tasks in September. After the dedicatory exercises the exhibits will be removed by the pupils who made them to the windows of merchants in the downtown district and arranged by the same pupils as displays in the scheme of Christmas decoration.

Stepping into the kindergarten room with its green tiled fish pond with gold fish swimming about in the sunlight, one turns around to see a fireplace, just the setting for old Santa to fill tiny stockings. The new draperies over the large rounded Spanish windows help to emphasize the spirit of happiness and color symbolizing childhood. Overhead, chandeliers with black iron animal silhouettes carry out in detail (Continued on Page Three)

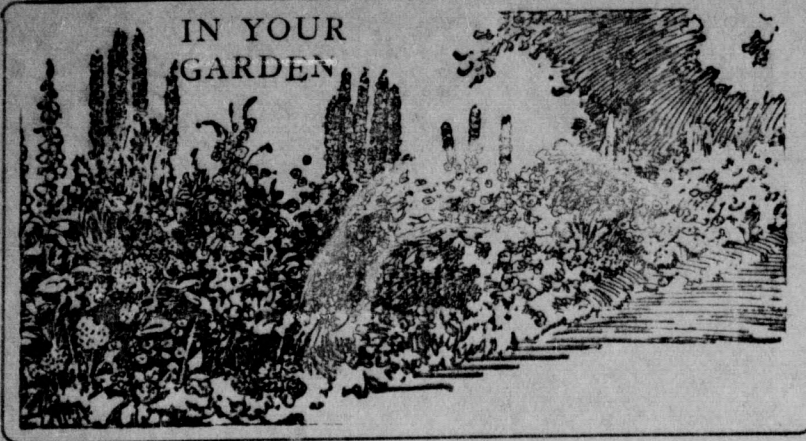

BUILDING CONSTRUCTION HERE CALLS FOR THE EXPENDITURE OF A HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS

More than 225 schools, office buildings, apartments, churches, theatres, public buildings and other structures, including 23 limit-height projects will reach the construction stage early in 1931, according to a building survey just completed by the Allied Building Trades. The valuation of these buildings is estimated at more than $111,000,000. The major portion of the structures comprising the survey will rise in metropolitan Los Angeles.

The encouraging feature of the report is the fact that more than 75 per cent of the projects listed are practically certain of going ahead within a few months.

The survey shows that 23 limit-height buildings will be erected within the space of a few months. Ten of these will be office buildings, nine apartments, two hotels, one theatre and one club building.

City and out-of-town schools with a total valuation of $20,101,500 led the list of buildings in point of cost. Next came 16 office buildings valued at $17,550,000. Public buildings, costing $15,985,000 followed.

CHRISTMAS IN THE GARDEN
By JESSIE WARD RUSSELL

CHRISTMAS OUT OF DOORS" has become a popular slogan here in California. Many people are now growing some sort of evergreen tree in their yard that they can decorate at Christmas-time. The Cedrus Deodora tree makes the most graceful Christmas tree of all but some yards are not large enough to contain one of these beautiful trees.

For the small plot of ground, we would advise planting an In-cense Cedar, Lawson Cypress or an ordinary green cypress.

An extension cord from the porch-light socket can easily be drawn to the top of the tree and electric light bulbs can be strung all through it.

Everyone could grow their own Holly Berries. The Native Holly trees are very easily grown and under cultivation the berries are far superior to those that are grown in their wild state.

The native "Wild Cherry" or Prunus Illicifolia should be grown as a companion to the native holly as its glossy green pointed foliage resembles the foliage of the eastern holly. The "Wild Cherry" foliage combined with the Native Holly makes beautiful wreaths and other Christmas decorations.

All of the red berried shrubs are useful for Christmas decorations. Cotoneaster Panosa, Pyracantha Yunanensis and Pyracantha Formosiana are best of the berried shrubs for this purpose.

POPPIES PLANTED NOW WILL MAKE SPRING COLOR

Nature flaunts her dashing mantle of brilliant colors as the California poppy comes into bloom as the herald of Spring.

Sierra Madre has always been partial to them—to poppies of all varieties—and since the city's first Flower Festival, has planted them generously each fall to help make the city colorful and to lend a delightful background first for the Flower Festivals and since then for the Wistaria Petes which succeeded the Flower Festivals.

For several years after the Flower Festival was inaugurated first the city trustees and later the Chamber of Commerce distributed poppy seeds free to the people each fall on condition that they should be used to add to the city's beauty during the Spring-time.

Poppy planting time begins with the fall rains here and continues throughout the winter and early spring months.

They resent transplanting and there is usually a great loss of plants when this is attempted, therefore the seeds should be sown where the plants are to remain. This is true of all poppies, including the lovely Shirley's and the perennial poppies.

The seeds are so small that it is well to mix them with sand at the time of sowing. Even when this precaution is taken, it may result in the seeds being planted too thickly. While they will stand being crowded to some extent, it is well to thin out and so give the individual plants sufficient room to do their best.

The loveliness of form and color, as well as the delicacy of its greenish gray foliage, combine to make the California poppy rank high in the affections of home gardeners and flower lovers. Under garden cultivation it will bloom profusely and keeps well when cut.

The popularity of Poppies is responsible for hybridists making a special effort to bring into being new colors, and combinations of colors. Some of those that are particularly beautiful include Vesuvius—a striking shade of red; Mauve Beauty, an entirely new color, being an attractive shade of pure mauve; Ballot Girl—the outside petals of which are an intense carmine—the inside a light cream, making a strikingly beautiful contrast of color; Orange Flame, a vivid orange scarlet; Lovely, a bright satiny rose-pink suffused with scarlet; Beauty, a bright vivid scarlet, and the Eschscholtzia Aurantiaca, and the true California Poppy—a deep orange.

A new Shirley Poppy is called the American Legion—the color of this being a brilliant orange scarlet with yellow anthers. The flowers are semi-double, and well fringed. The plants grow to a height of two to three feet, and bear an immense profusion of blooms.

Another interesting class of poppies is the Tall Double variety, including the Carnation-Flowered Double, the Peony-Flowered, and the new tall double poppy recently introduced as Salmon Shades Irresistible. Ordinarily these will grow to a height of three to four feet, producing a mass of most attractive flowers. Cut while in bud form, or just as the buds begin to show color, they will open fully when placed in water, and provide a very nice cut flower.

Poppies are not particular as to soil and will thrive under ordinary garden cultivation.

RAINS BRING MORE TROUBLE IN GROVES

Following the recent rains brown rot fungus growth is making its appearance in a large number of citrus groves, according to Robert N. Hutchinson, district agricultural inspector, who has just completed a check-up on several thousand acres in the Covina Valley district.

Immediate spraying with Bordeaux mixture is advised by Hutchinson.

FOOTHILL TOWNS TO CELEBRATE OPENING OF GREAT HIGHWAY

Completion of Foothill Boulevard as a main Southern California highway from Cajon Pass to Pasadena is to be fittingly celebrated at Claremont on January 13 by the Foothill Boulevard Association. Cities all along the great thoroughfare will be asked to join in the affair which will conclude with a dinner in the evening.

The boulevard has either been widened or contracts have been awarded for it excepting for the strip through Upland, which is looking to substantial help from the State that will probably not be forthcoming until the $35,703,000 fund budgeted for road work during the next two years is tapped.

Upland has importuned the highway department to release the funds at once on the ground that badly needed employment would be furnished.

Mrs. Caroline Hasemeyer and daughter, Sarah, of Milwaukee, Wis., have come to spend the winter here in Sierra Madre. They are living at 185 North Lima street.

New Book By
Shippey Wins
High Praise

Critic Says Local Columnist
Has Excelled In His Latest Volume

Lee Shippey's latest book, "Folks Ushud Know," is winning high praise from book reviewers, columnists and editors throughout California—and its sale must be most gratifying to the Sierra Madre author. Not only are the criticisms of the work as a literary effort most appreciative, but almost without exception they are laudatory of the volume's composition and appearance of the book and this is surely gratifying to THE NEWS which published it.

In a criticism in THE TIMES the writer goes more into the personality of the author than most of the others. The book reviewer's criticism follows:

"Lee Shippey is a columnist who puts himself in everything he writes. Readers who have never met him need not be told that he is a friendly, big-hearted family man, with a flair for optimism and a gift for poetry. This is to be read between his own self-revealing lines. It is these special qualities that so supremely fit him for writing the brief sketches of celebrities which we all read in our morning paper and which from time to time he issues in book form.

"In the present volume Mr. Shippey makes us acquainted with a score or more of famous folk who live in Southern California. If each appears with his best foot foremost and with a look-pleasant-please smile, that's all the better. For it is a relief to have a book where everybody is good as well as successful. That might easily be overdone. But Lee Shippey is too experienced a newspaper man to be caught in that trap. He knows how to pepper his sketches with lively anecdotes and to salt them with humor. And that is why they are the best thing of the kind being done in America today.

"And now a word for Lee's poems. They are, as he says, 'songs of courage,' the kind that help men and women to face the day's burdens cheerfully and to carry on however jinxed, Jonah and hoodooed one seems to be. For here are verses such as this to fortify us:

"Life's tragedies but raindrops are
"In Time's vast sea of was and is,

"And who can say such grief is his

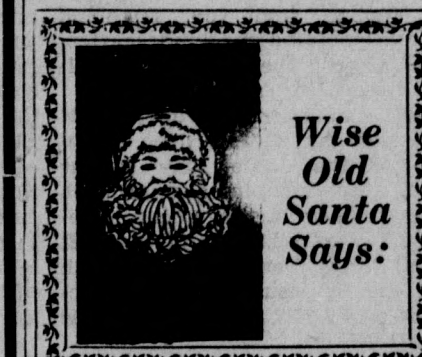

"As merits to be cried afar?"

"Mr. Ewing's drawings of 'the folks ushud know' are worthy of their subjects."

KELTERBORN IS BACK;
TRIP TO GERMANY IS FOUND UNNECESSARY

Adolph Kelterborn, Sierra Madre's glider builder and flier who left here several weeks ago for Germany, has returned to the city. Under the impression that it would be necessary to return to his native land and then return to the United States in order to clear up a question raised concerning his ultimate citizenship, he planned to spend some time in Germany.

"I discovered in New York that it would not be necessary to make the trip across the water," said Adolph gleefully on his return, "so I beat it back to Sierra Madre—and maybe I wasn't glad to get back."

In A Social Way

COULDS ENTERTAIN WITH EVENING OF MUSIC—

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Courcil of Pasadena were host and hostess to a group of their friends on Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bowen of Canyon Crest Drive.

Mr. Courcil has composed some thoroughly unique and most charming music, based on the well-known narrative of the Pied Piper of Hamelin. The lyrics were supplied by Russell McCarthy. Mrs. Randolph Wood sang several of the songs from this opera. They were most captivating and far removed from the ordinary musical effort of the day. Mrs. Wood further delighted and entertained with a group of Mr. Courcil's songs, the composer acting as her most efficient accompanist.

Mr. Courcil has sung opera roles in leading musical centers of Europe and his friends consider it a misfortune that he cannot be induced to sing here more frequently.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Rasbach, Mr. and Mrs. James N. Hawks, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Gaze, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carew, Miss Marian Vanlier, Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Wood, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Staples, Miss Beatrice Thurn of Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Hart of San Marino; Russell McCarthy of Los Angeles and Charles Hall of Alhambra.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED—

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Frank, 400 Mariposa avenue, was the scene Wednesday evening of a delightful party honoring the eighth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Frank. Gorgeous gifts were bestowed upon the bride and groom. Numerous vaudeville acts and recitations were given and enjoyed by the guests.

Those who enjoyed the festive evening were Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Brady, brother-in-law and sister of Mrs. Frank; Mr. and Mrs. M. Tauber; Harry Brady, Mr. and Mrs. Tobais, Mr. and Mrs. A. La Vine, Mr. and Mrs. D. Fink of Glendale; Mr. and Mrs. J. Freedman, Mr. and Mrs. W. Schriber, Mr. and Mrs. N. Shineberg of Van Nuys; Mr. and Mrs. Leon Keltz and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Weber of Sierra Madre.

BRIDE-TO-BE HONORED AT A PARTY—

Mrs. Bundy of Pasadena entertained relatives and others from Friend's Church last Thursday with a quilting party in honor of Miss Lucille Ladd of this city, whose engagement to Harry S. Barrington was announced in August. Congratulatory messages were received and read, among them a communication from Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ladd who are attending Moody Bible Institute in Chicago. A very clever and original poem was dedicated to Miss Ladd, revealing the high esteem and love bestowed upon her by her many friends.

The Sierra Club entertained a party of 60 at Fern Lodge last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stamer of 193 Adams street, were host and hostess Saturday evening to Mr. and Mrs. Otis Phiesie and son Richard, of Eagle Rock, the occasion being the birthday of Mr. Stamer.

Mrs. William Lees is entertaining the Entre Nous Club at her home, 74 East Central avenue, this afternoon. The regular business meeting will be followed by a social afternoon of sewing.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall Perry entertained at dinner last Saturday evening after the U.S.C.-Notre Dame football game, for Mr. and Mrs. Victor C. Hill of Sierra Madre; and Miss Margaret Yindall and Edwin Pyle of Puente.

Mrs. Frank B. Butler entertained 12 guests at a birthday dinner last Sunday, honoring her husband's birthday. The guests included: Miss Beulah Lott and James Lott of Lynwood; Mrs. Roy Prentiss of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer R. Thompson and John Harkness of Sierra Madre.

Mrs. E. L. Haenssler and Mrs. Clara Brown and her three children spent Sunday in Glendale, the guests of Mrs. Ben Hanson.

The Eteri Club was entertained by Mrs. C. D. Croan of 301 Sturtevant Drive last Thursday evening. The pot luck supper was sumptuous. It was followed by music and a Bible lesson by Miss Natalie Romans. The hostess favored her guests with piano selections.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson III were host and hostess on Wednesday at a hard time dance at their home, 177 Merrill avenue. The evening was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. C. Hall Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ward Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stover, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Stanley, Dudley Shaw and Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Dodge of Monrovia.

Mrs. D. Vanderpool is entertaining at bridge this afternoon at her home, 455 Woodland Drive. The Christmas motif is being carried out in the decorations.

The guest list includes Mrs. Joseph Stimpfing, Mrs. William Butts, Jessie Dunning, Mrs. Al Myers, Mrs. Rudolph Hartman, Jessie Hibbs and Mrs. Carl Greese.

Mrs. Victor Hill entertained 12 of her friends on Tuesday with a bridge luncheon at her home, 41 South Lima street. Those present were: Mesdames John Woehler, Hall Perry, Lyle Anderson, Guy Steinberger, Samuel Graham, Howard Leiben, Waverly Pratt, Emile Smith and Miss Jean Woodward of Sierra Madre; Mrs. Tom McDonough of San Gabriel, and Mrs. Carl Jappe of Pasadena.

Mrs. S. K. Lessley of 319 Ramona, was hostess last Saturday evening on the occasion of her birthday. Birthday cake and refreshments were served. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Garver, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Lessley of Pasadena; Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Lessley of Colorado; Mrs. E. F. Lessley of San Gabriel; Miss Ruth Davis of El Monte and Mr. and Mrs. L. START SERIES OF TOURS TO DEATH VALLEY

Personally escorted tours to Death Valley, Calif., are being arranged by the Union Pacific Railway System throughout the winter, the next tour leaving Los Angeles, Saturday, December 13. A Pasadena secured the first reservation for one of these beautiful and scenic excursions.

No other form of diversion could afford the comfort and relaxation of a trip like this. A well planned itinerary releases your mind from the worry of seeking good hotels; everything is planned for your comfort.

Mrs. M. F. Gregory Dies. Mrs. M. F. Gregory, aged mother of Mrs. Nestor A. Young, Jr., of 209 West Highland avenue, died last night after a short illness. Mrs. Gregory came to Sierra Madre from Los Angeles two years ago. Besides Mrs. Young she is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Irving W. Adams, of Santa Monica and two sons, Carey G. Gregory, of Los Angeles and Linden R. Gregory, of Seattle.

RED CROSS TRAVELING CHRISTMAS TREE

Non-perishable gifts should be brought to Headquarters now. Articles of cheer are badly needed. All supplies not later than Saturday before Xmas.

THE WHITE HOUSE WASHINGTON

The Christmas Seals of the National Tuberculosis Association which are sold at Christmas time every year provide funds for one of the most valuable of all services to mankind in helping to prevent and destroy a disease which threatens millions of homes and weakens millions of the children and youth of the Nation. I commend this yearly campaign to all our people.

WORK OF PUPILS

tail the thoughtfulness put into this room.

A gaily decorated Christmas tree where little ones exchanged gifts this morning, Christmas houses of cardboard and Santa figures made by the children, adorn the top of the work cabinets.

"The Three Bears" house with furniture constructed of miscellaneous wooden boxes brought by the children, is the project of the 1-B class under the supervision of their teacher, Miss Claire Newman. The furniture is painted green and every detail is carried out, even to the three bear chairs, beds, and tables.

The children of Miss Mabel Richter's class, 1-A, have built a large playhouse with a little window box under a crisp curtained window. Stepping inside one sees furniture large enough for the children to sit on, painted green or rose in the ravens rooms. A stove with an electric heating element, imitation radio, fireplace, cupboards, chairs, tables and beds, all made of boxes and painted by the children, are inside the rooms.

The 2-B grade under Mrs. Zada F. Leonard depicts community life in its exhibit with houses made of cardboard cartons, each with a lighted candle in front, a church and Santa and his reindeer approaching in the snow. California houses form a frieze above, on the blackboard.

The pupils of May Woods, teacher of 2-A grade, took transportation as their idea, with wagons and trains cleverly made of paper boxes. The zoo animals—done in flat work, are most artistic.

Miss Helen Wones' children of the 3-B grade, have selected an Indian exhibit consisting of clothing made out of gunny sacks painted by the girls, clay images, shalaced beads and pueblos.

The exhibit of the 3-A grade, under Miss Reichard's supervision, is a Japanese idea with Japanese baskets and lanterns.

"Early Hebrew History," with a large map of the Egyptian and Arabian deserts, flat roofed houses, pictures of Arabs, silhouette of the wisemen and the little town of Bethlehem made out of paper, is the subject of Mrs. Eva Moore's 4-B class. This is also the Thrift Honor room.

A large California Mission is built at the end of the room of Mrs. Yerda Adams, teacher of 4-A. The teacher of this class will depict in costume "Early California Days."

Miss Ruth Taylor's class, the 5-B grade, selected "Colonial Life," with fireplace and pictures of early America.

"Our Neighbors" is the thought of the 5-A grade, with Miss Virginia Berry as the instructor.

Mrs. Mary Wheeler's 6-B class is exhibiting early Egypt, Babylon, Greek and Roman life in comparison with the up-to-date world customs. Large scenes painted by the children in color would do credit to a junior college class.

"Medieval Life" is depicted with a miniature castle by Miss Gladys Ballard's class of the 6-A.

Congregational Church Observes Christmas Sunday

Sunday, December 21, will be observed by all as Christmas Sunday at the Congregational church. All departments of the school will hold a special service together at 9:30 a.m. with song, a Christmas story and Gifts.

Each child is to bring a gift neatly wrapped, suitable for a shut-in.

At 11 o'clock the full chorus choir under direction of Mrs. Hill will sing "The Adoration" by Nevins. The Pastor, Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard, will preach a Christmas sermon. The Junior choir will render some Christmas carols.

At the evening service at 7:30 a Christmas Pageant entitled "The Adoration of the Shepherds and Wise Men" will be given in the church under the direction of Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger. The offerings at all services will be given in the spirit of the Magi who brought their gifts in adoration of the "King of Love."

Mr. and Mrs. William Elliott and Katherine Elliott of Huntington Park, were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Fleming on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Josephine Marr has been visiting her mother in Oneonta Park for a few days.

Favorite Dishes Of Sierra Madreans

The favorite recipe of Mrs. W. J. Schiltz, of 67 East Highland avenue for Oatmeal drop cookies is pronounced "very good" by those who have tried it. Here it is:

3 cups sugar (brown or granulated), 3/4 cup lard or butter, 2 or 3 eggs, 2 cups sour milk, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 tablespoon black molasses, 3 tablespoons vinegar, 3 cups oat meal, 3 cups flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1 cup nuts, 1 cup raisins, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 teaspoon cinnamon. Mix well. Bake 15 to 20 minutes at 350 degrees.

SEE NEW MEANING TO THANKSGIVING DAY

Thanksgiving is taking on a new aspect. It is growing to mean more a season of friendship and expression of good wishes beyond the family circle. The Post Office department reports a great increase this year in the exchange of "friendship" greeting cards. The hope of prosperity was the one most often expressed—reflecting the present business conditions. One card typically asserts that "among the many other things I am grateful for is the joy of your friendship," while another declares: "The Thanksgiving spirit moves me to wish you health, happiness, and prosperity."

NEW SCHOOL'S EFFECT TO BE FAR REACHING

Dec. 9, 1930.
Several inspection visits to the new $210,000 elementary school only confirm the viewpoint that it is the most lavish, truly magnificent "gift" the little tots could have been given. Like others, the writer was opposed to the spending of such a large sum on a six-grade school, and held that belief up to two weeks ago, openly voicing it here and there. But the school is so overwhelmingly beautiful, the equipment so superb, and the whole proposition so outstanding, that it will work an effect here of wonderful value, such as no ordinary school plant could do.

Credit for the existence of Sierra Madre Elementary School as it stands today is not only due to the architectural firm of vision, shared by the alert school board, and to the conditions of economy which permitted building an "A" type structure for the usual cost of a "B" type building, but more than all to the local newspaper, then edited by Joseph Asbury, whose wife is now president of the Parent-Teachers association here.

With heart in the cause, Mr. Asbury and his co-partner, Mr. Eastwood, now editor of a paper in Eagle Rock, threw the full weight of THE NEWS into favoring the bond issue. Pages of descriptive matter, fine typographic work, and all possible interest of passing the bonds. Without that intelligent support, in all likelihood, a lesser school would have been built to replace the "fire-trap" then housing the children.

Birthday Greetings

THE NEWS extends birthday greetings and its best wishes this week to the following Sierra Madreans:

Robert Roberts	Dec. 12
Velma Pickett	Dec. 12
Mrs. Geo. Halpin	Dec. 12
A. A. Lanphear	Dec. 12
W. R. Lasater	Dec. 15
John M. Shaw	Dec. 15
Esther Poth	Dec. 16
Mrs. John Shaw	Dec. 17
Mrs. G. Picard	Dec. 17
Daniel Poth	Dec. 18
Mrs. Woodson F. Jones	Dec. 18
Roy Pickett	Dec. 18
Henry Gregor Jr.	Dec. 6
Mrs. Tom Tyler	Dec. 8
Kathleen Moore	Dec. 9
Frank B. Butler	Dec. 5
Mrs. S. K. Lessley	Dec. 6
William Stamer	Dec. 6

And, if one will look into the future, and visualize the far-reaching effect the new school is to have on the destiny of this beautiful community, one cannot but admit the opposition (small as it was) was most probably short-sighted.

Clever Features At Friendship Club's Christmas Party

The Friendship Club of the Congregational Church entertained with a Christmas party on Monday evening. The room was decorated and Mrs. H. W. Glidden played Christmas songs on her trumpet, while children from the Plaza Community Home, in costume, sang Christmas carols. Jessie Dunning gave a Christmas recitation, which was followed by Santa Claus, who was represented by Mrs. Robert Smith, distributing gifts to each lady present.

The social club served appropriate Christmas refreshments around a small lighted Christmas tree. Mrs. W. O. Preston, newly elected president, presided at a short business meeting at which reports of committees were given. The club has undertaken philanthropic work for a Sierra Madre family that would otherwise not have a Christmas this year.

The hostesses for the evening were Jessie Dunning, Mrs. Jack Buchan, Mrs. W. C. Dalzell, Mrs. Robert Smith and Mrs. Daisy Greese.

HOLIDAY TRAVEL AIDED BY WESTERN RAILROADS

From all points west of Ogden and Salt Lake City, between Portland in the north and Albuquerque and El Paso in the south, family gatherings for Christmas and New Year will be aided this year by special roundtrip excursions on the principal rail lines.

Joint announcement of the holiday fares, to be offered December 18 to January 1 with return limit of January 6, was made today by Southern Pacific, Santa Fe, Western Pacific and Sacramento Northern railroads.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wilkerson spent Sunday in Sierra Madre visiting old friends.

New Officers Of Eastern Star Enter Upon Their Duties

The 1931 officers of Sierra Madre Chapter 299, Order of the Eastern Star were installed with an impressive ceremony last Monday night in the Masonic Temple in the presence of members and friends. Mrs. Harriet Buckingham, retiring Worthy Matron and Harold Roberts, a past Worthy Patron, inducted the newly elected officials into office.

During the ceremony Elizabeth Morgridge gave two violin numbers, Hubay's "Hejre Kati" and Kreisler's "La Gitani" accompanied by her mother, Mrs. George B. Morgridge, on the piano. Virginia Roess, accompanied by Mrs. Maude Rodgers, sang Forster's "Rose in the Bud" and "Star of the East."

The Deputy Grand Matron of the 46th District, Mrs. Maude Parks of Pasadena Chapter, honored the members with her presence.

Other guests attended from Burbank, Maywood, Pasadena, Monrovia and the surrounding chapters.

The newly installed officers are to meet with their District Deputy Grand Matron, Mrs. Maude Parks of Pasadena, next Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m. to receive instruction at her hands regarding their duties for the coming year.

DEACONS CHALLENGE DIRECTORS FOR GAME AT MEN'S HI JINKS

The next meeting of the Men's Community Club, Thursday, December 18, has many surprises in store. Several groups are quietly and secretly at work arranging for what is called a Field Day.

It is known that there will be an exhibition basket ball game of first class players, but there are dark hints of derby races, dumb-bell races, hoop races and marbles, as well. Believe it or not there will be some "fruit of the orchard" and other refreshments.

It is understood that the deacons have challenged the directors to a match of some kind. It is all to be free for the men of the town. Come and have a laugh, come and join in the fun. It is announced no members of the Gloom Club will be admitted. Restricted to men of all ages who are boys in spirit—at the Social Hall of the Congregational church, Thursday evening. "A merry heart doeth good like a medicine."

EDISON CO. PUTS ON CAMPAIGN TO CATCH OFFICE HOLD-UP MEN

A standing offer of a reward of $250 for information directly leading to the arrest and conviction of anyone robbing any Southern California Edison Company employe while on company duty or holding up and robbing any Edison office, storeroom or other company place of business, was announced here today by Fred Schwartz, manager of the company's Monrovia district.

This offer is made in an effort to be of assistance to local police authorities, according to the district manager, and the placards announcing the permanent offer of a reward have been posted in all Edison company offices, sub-offices, stores, shops and other places of company business.

The reward will be paid, the announcement said, to the first person furnishing the information leading to the arrest and conviction of the guilty party.

Your Plan To Spend $18,000 A Year May Bring Big Reward

How would you spend $1500 a month to benefit humanity? That is the question being asked in a social service contest seeking the description of a project to meet some human need in Los Angeles and environs, involving the expenditure of $18,000 a month ($18,000 a year) for a period of from three to five years.

An "unannounced donor" is providing $850 in prize money to be distributed among the three best projects submitted—$500 as first prize, $250 as second prize; and $100 as third prize, according to Dr. Emory S. Borgardus of the University of Southern California, who has been selected as director of the contest.

Judges of the project manuscripts submitted are to be Judge Robert E. Scott, Superior Court, Juvenile Department, Los Angeles; Dr. George M. Day, professor of sociology at Occidental College; Harry F. Henderson, general secretary of the Y.M.C.A., Los Angeles; Mrs. Charles H. Richmond of the Los Angeles Social Service Commission; and Dr. George B. Mangold, professor of sociology, University of Southern California.

Anyone is eligible to compete and details of the contest may be had from Dr. Borgardus. The contest closes February 15.

REGULAR SCHEDULE OF RUBBISH COLLECTIONS NOW

The regular schedule of rubbish collection will be resumed after this week, it was announced by the street department this morning, the trucks calling in the territory east of Baldwin avenue on the first Wednesday of each month and on the last Wednesday west of Baldwin.

Since the recent windstorm three and four trucks have been in constant operation.

CHRISTMAS SEALS HELP CUT DEATH RATE

The Christmas Seal movement began 24 years ago. Since that time the national death rate from tuberculosis has been cut to less than half. Eliminate the other half through the support of the Christmas Seal which finances health work in this community carried on by the Los Angeles County Tuberculosis and Health Association. Seals may be had at the Post Office. Be sure they go on your Christmas letters and packages.

It is said that a bill will be introduced in the next session of Congress to double the existing appropriation for road work. If the bill passes, $350,000,000 will be available for federal aid. The unemployment situation and the mid-western drought have stimulated the good roads movement.

Mile-High Glider Club Organized In Sierra Nevada Mts.

Winter sports enthusiasts seeking new thrills amid the deep snows of California's mile-high mountains will find them this year in the Lake Tahoe region, it was revealed today.

Organization of the Sierra Gliding Club, with headquarters at Truckee, has just been completed for the purpose of providing an added attraction in the realm of snowland's big outdoor show.

Sponsored by a group of Truckee citizens, the club will be the first, so far as known, to use snow-clad mountain slopes to send a glider into the air, according to Wilbur L. Maynard, vice-president of the club and manager of Southern Pacific's winter sports bureau.

A glider has been purchased for the club and membership in the organization has been opened to all persons visiting the Truckee-Tahoe country for the annual snow sports.

ANOTHER TIME CUT BRINGS NORTH AND EAST LITTLE CLOSER

Marked reduction in the running time of many limited and local Southern Pacific trains made in the interest of faster western transportation will become effective December 28, it is announced by E. W. Clapp, general passenger traffic manager.

The schedule of the Westbound Pacific Limited from Chicago to San Francisco will be cut one hour and 20 minutes; the east bound Pacific Limited schedule will be cut 40 minutes. On the Shasta Route the running time of the Cascade, operating between the Bay cities and Portland will be cut 40 minutes. This will provide 21 hour train schedule between the Golden Gate and Columbia River.

The schedule of the Argonaut running between New Orleans and Los Angeles will be cut 1 hour and 50 minutes. Other changes in schedules include the speeding up of Shasta Route and San Joaquin Valley trains from 10 to 40 minutes.

Big Company Backs Faith In The Future

Huge Sums Will Go Into Extensions And Betterments During 1931

The Southern California Edison Company Ltd., will spend $180,000 for new construction and electric distribution service expansion and betterments in the Monrovia district during 1931, according to an announcement here today by Fred Schwartz, district manager. Payroll funds totaling $87,000 also will be distributed in this district during the 12 months.

New industrial, agricultural and domestic business amounting to $350,000 horsepower is anticipated by the Edison company for next year, from present consumers as well as the 27,000 new consumers who are expected to apply for service in 1931. The extensions and reinforcements to be made in the Monrovia district are planned to care for the district's share of this new load.

The program of new work to be done in this district, in addition to general distribution system reinforcements and the extension of service facilities to both old and new consumers, includes construction of a new substation at Arcadia and the improvement of facilities at the Anita and Monrovia substations. The program also calls for additions at the company's Monrovia business office. Approximately 8,000 horsepower of new service capacity will be added in the districts' substations during the new year, continuing the expansion that has been under way continuously for a long period.

The Monrovia district includes Sierra Madre, Temple and Duarte, each community being closely tied in with all other sections of the system and all of the facilities of the Edison company.

A construction budget of more than $28,000,000, one of the largest in its history, has been adopted by the Edison company for 1931. Mr. Schwartz said. More than $25,000,000 will be used for new construction and the balance for reinforcements and extraordinary maintenance. Extension and improvement of the electrical distribution system calls for the expenditure of $15,270,000. Provision also is made in the budget for $8,620,000 for the installation of another 135,000 horsepower generating unit in the company's Long Beach steam station, together with provisions for fuel supply facilities. The benefits of this increased generating capacity will apply in the Monrovia district as in all other districts of the Edison system in Southern and Central California.

Plans for Edison company expenditures during 1931, which will average two and one-third millions dollars a month, are predicated upon the belief of officers of the company in the early resumption of normal activities throughout the company's territory. Mr. Schwartz said, and the Monrovia district will contribute materially to this general advance and will share substantially in the benefits of this increased activity.

CITY FALLS 50 SHORT OF ITS RED CROSS QUOTA, BUT DIRECTORS BELIEVE LIMIT WILL BE REACHED AS THEY PLAN CHEER FOR SHUT-INS

Related subscriptions for membership in the Sierra Madre chapter of the Red Cross are still coming in and directors of the organization are still hopeful that the quota of 750 assigned this city will be reached within the next week. Nearly every organization in the city has turned in a 100 per cent membership and officers of those that have not reached the limit are making a quiet drive that is expected to bring the city's total up to expectations. The list is now 50 short of the allotted number.

Meanwhile details of the Red Cross plans to carry the joy of Christmas to the shut-ins are being perfected. Sixty-five baskets will be delivered by Santa Claus in his tour of the city with Christmas carolers and a lighted tree. To fill the baskets many articles of food are being donated and the Red Cross directors have asked for contributions of oranges, home made cookies and candy, preserves and canned fruit, apples, nuts, raisins and books.

Each basket will also contain writing paper, envelopes and stamps. All supplies must be delivered to Red Cross headquarters by noon on the Saturday before Christmas, as Santa Claus will make his round on the following Tuesday evening.

The following is a list of contributors who have joined the Red Cross since publication of the last list in THE NEWS, this list having been furnished as it appears here from the local chapter's headquarters.

Home Concern Will Beautify Grounds At The New School

The grounds at the city's new school building are to be beautified by a local concern. The landscaping contract has been awarded by the school trustees to Ward's Nursery which was in competition with three outside bidders.

This same local company, which has been in business here for 25 years, planted the City Park, its competitive plan arranged by Jessie Ward Russell, having been selected by a committee of experts. Much of the older planting about the city's homes was propagated by Irving N. Ward. The same company also recently planted the grounds of the Santa Anita school district at Temple.

PLAN BIG CHRISTMAS PARTY AT ST. RITA'S

On Thursday, December 18, the members of St. Rita's Alumni will sponsor an afternoon and evening's entertainment. In the afternoon there will be many peaches that kiddies will enjoy. Bridge and Five Hundred will be the main entertainment of the evening.

During the card party a turkey and five dollar gold piece will be given as prizes. A door prize will also be given.

Let's go up to St. Rita's December 18. Rest assured all will enjoy a very pleasant evening.

The Dickens Fellowship Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Wright in Pasadena next Thursday.

City Got $2 For Every $1 School Cost

Community Dinner Develops Interesting Facts About New Structure

Sierra Madre got two dollars worth of school building for every dollar it paid for the materials that went into its new plant and no other community in California could begin to duplicate the new grammar school for anything like its cost, citizens were told at the Chamber of Commerce dinner celebrating completion of the city's school, at the Woman's Club on Monday night.

Architects and building experts declared that the building was contracted for and the materials purchased when commodities were at very lowest level, which enabled the city to get a "Class A" structure for the "Class C" price. The building is the equal in beauty, construction and sturdiness of any school building in California, or likely to be built within the near future—as complete in detail and utility as it is possible to have at any price, the experts said, and absolutely fireproof except for the wood in the roof, upon which the tile is laid.

The community dinner was designed to honor the board of school trustees that so splendidly carried through the expressed wish of the people for a modern school building and the individuals and organizations that led the movement that resulted in passage by the people of a bond issue of $210,000 to make the beautiful structure possible.

Following a prayer by Rev. William Duncan Ogg, President Davies of the Chamber of Commerce presented Mayor Al S. Myers as toastmaster. After President W. E. Keefe, of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of the San Gabriel Valley was introduced the Mayor called upon David D. Smith, of the firm of Marsh, Smith and Powell, the architects who designed the structure.

It was he who quoted the price of building materials when they were bought for the school with those now prevailing and which formed the basis for the assertion that the city had secured practically two dollars in value for every dollar of outlay. The structure was in every detail of the Class A type, he said, and the cost that of a Class C.

W. A. Pearson, the inspector who has been constantly on the job, told of the building as it progressed and expressed the opinion that there is not a more model, complete or substantial school structure in the State at any cost.

Prof. A. M. Brown, principal of Woodrow Wilson Jr. High School, Pasadena, roused many pleasant recollections of 22 years ago and brought smiles to many faces as he told of his first assignment as a teacher in the school here.

E. D. Burbank told how the Pasadena school authorities had been interested in the demand for a new school here and how they had been persuaded to make a survey of the city's educational needs which was used as the basis for the campaign that resulted in the bond election and the present building.

J. O. Smith, president of the board of trustees told of the aims of the trustees in planning and building, which was to direct the thought of the younger generation and to inspire high ideals. If the building is beautiful and practical, he said, it was equally important that the heart of every members of the teaching staff had heart in the work of properly directing the impressionable minds under their direction, so that the school is not merely a building.

The level of a community is its school and churches, he said, and he was confident that the new school will bring many of the better class of residents here and that it would have an influence for good beyond the fondest expectation of the board. He paid a glowing tribute to the loyalty and efficiency of the school principal, Miss Elizabeth Steinberger.

Mrs. Cecily A. Allen, secretary of the board, said the trustees had planned the building with probably more thought and loving interest than would have gone into the construction of their own homes and Mrs. Gilbert S. Bovard spoke in similar vein.

Mayor Myers said the building had been made possible only through the fact that every civic organization in the city had put its shoulder to the wheel and worked for he bond issue. He gave credit to the chamber of commerce, the Kiwanis Club, Woman's Club, Protective Club League and other organizations.

Beginning with Charles B. Klunk who was president of the Chamber of Commerce a year ago when the bond issue was passed, the Mayor then introduced the heads of the various organizations.

Kiwanians To Play Santa For 23 Boys

Weekly Luncheon Will Be Turned Into A Real Christmas Party

All the other fellows in town will be envious of 23 underprivileged boys who are to be guests of the Kiwanis Club at a Christmas party at the Woman's Club on December 23.

Just about everything calculated to make the young heart happy figures in the program somewhere and somehow, beginning with an uncommonly good turkey dinner with all the Christmas trimmings.

Of course there will be a Christmas tree and candy and presents, too. And an entertainment—music and everything.

The boys will be guests of the club at its weekly luncheon, each of 23 members being host to a particular one of the 23 boys.

At its luncheon this week the club discussed plans for the party and gave the insignia of membership to Dr. Mervin H. A. Peterson, Jack Hosford, Earl J. Lynde, Warren E. Craig, George A. Moran and Thomas J. Miller Jr., all of whom are new members.

Jack Eberle, past lieutenant-governor of the district, initiated the new members. A musical program and recitations were presented by Gordon R. Brooks, chairman of the day. Laura E. Cadmus, accompanied by Gustave D. Rihard, sang three selections.

A parody on "Barbara Fritchie" and a travesty on "Hiawatha" entitled "Instant Postum" was contributed by Walter Lemmon, district trustee of Altadena.

The guests for the day were L. A. Baker, trustee-elect and Wilbur Smith of the Pasadena club, and W. C. McCullah of Alhambra.

MRS. BURBANK TO TELL OF TRIP TO THE HOLY LAND
The Woman's Society of the Congregational Church will hold its regular missionary meeting in the Church Parlors on Tuesday, December 16, at 2 p.m. Mrs. E. D. Burbank will tell of the trip she and her husband had through the Holy Land. It is hoped that E. Higashi, a Japanese gentleman, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Burbank, will be in attendance and speak. A woman's quartette will sing Christmas carols. Tea will be served. Everyone is asked to bring a friend and come to this splendid meeting.

Mrs. William D. Corum of Sturtevant Trail has been serving on the jury in the Superior Court of Los Angeles for the past week.

Fire Flames

By one of the boys

AS the date for the Big Card Party and Dance nears, the fellows of the fire department have plenty to do in the time they are able to spare. This, with the building of the truck and attending to other fire fighting interests is employing considerable valuable time. The truck has now progressed to the state where it has the appearance of a fire-fighting machine. Although Fire-Flames claims no credit, we do say that this truck will be a piece of work that the boys can be proud of, and also that the citizens of this city should be pleased with.

Some of the boys report ticket selling for the Big Party is going good. Others say they couldn't sell rabbit's foot to a colored "genman" on a day of lightning. However, every member expects to sell sufficient to make the Xmas Treat a success.

Who can think of anything more exasperating than a blow of the recent damaging variety coming along unexpectedly and strewing our streets with trimmings and Xmas Trees?

After traveling through the cities of the valley and seeing the decorations, we would appear "awkward" here, if we had not "brighten up." And to think that we have a community Xmas Tree celebration doesn't throw us in the ash heap, either.

Joe Swanson and Jim Heasley attended the Angeles Forest Protective Association meeting at Claremont on Tuesday. As Joe is Scotch, and Jim had a few Scotch hung on his family tree, they both enjoyed the "free chicken dinner" very much. Joe said they ate so much that they could hardly get in their car, to return home.

Aiding in trimming the tree at the city hall, we had Bob Newberry enjoying the elementary steps to firemen's requirements. Bob was garbed in a blue flannel shirt and silk bow tie, with creased trousers and patent leather shoes to hold him down.

Our Assistant Chief came waddling up the steps leading to our domain, and looking like the wind had blown him over. On one side of his face he had a plaster resembling a Hot Cross Bun and the other side looked as tho' he had transferred it. Mr. Norris has had an infection on his cheek that has given him considerable distress and loss of sleep. This, with the new twins will probably convince him that a battery will run down if the horn isn't turned off.

George says "Blow your horn!" A number of the ladies gathered at Mrs. Walsworth's on Tuesday and cut and sewed stockings, which are to be filled for the Xmas Eve celebration. As was to be expected Mister Frank Lovell was there. The girls can't get along without him. Well, Chevroleters are not bad cars for ladies.

Last Tuesday evening the boys reported that both Steve Petzel and Lee Hibbs were down at the plant. Both of these Appolos have abilities as carpenters and this was a night of iron work. Just the same, they both assisted gladly in the welding operations, especially at holding a light for the welder (who must wear blue glasses).

This about puts the FIRE OUT!

Public May Now See Model Home That Excited Interest

Completed just in time to be given as a Christmas present and ready to lay the rugs and move the furniture into, hundreds of Sierra Madreans will be glad to know that a model home at 248 West Highland avenue in which they have shown a great interest will be thrown open to public inspection next Monday.

Its simple construction, modern arrangement and conveniences and homey appearance have attracted widespread interest in the homey little five-room house constructed by George A. Moran.

Mrs. N. W. Mesecar will represent the builders in conducting those interested through the premises next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons to see and admire the tile bath, hardwood floors, modern lighting fixtures, unit heat, large laundry, large storage room and other features that those seeking real comfort in a home most want.

Reception To Open New Art Exhibit

"Little Gallery" Remodeled And New Lighting System Is Installed

The next art exhibition at Sierra Madre's "Little Art Gallery" in the City Hall will open on Monday night with a reception to Jean Mannheim, well-known Southern California artist, whose work will be shown. Canvases of this celebrity have attracted highest praise by critics everywhere and are expected to bring many art patrons of the Southland here.

They will be shown to much greater advantage than it has heretofore been possible to give pictures hung in the "Gallery," which has been remodeled and in which a lighting system is now being installed.

This system is being worked out by a number of local artists headed by H. I. Hawxhurst, Mrs. E. E. Bagon, president, and Mrs. Fred Griebow, chairman of the art section of the Woman's Club which sponsors the art exhibits, the City Council and W. J. Ropp. They conducted a number of experiments on Monday night following a meeting of the Council, when direct instead of the overhead lights were used on a painting by Mr. Hawxhurst. The new system most generally favored made an almost unbelievable difference in the effect obtained. The "new," or remodeled "gallery" is somewhat smaller than formerly, but more bright and cheerful. The first showing in it will remain throughout December and January and, as always, the public is not only most cordially invited, but urged to see it.

H. Wayne Merrill and his student flyer, a business man of Hollywood, left a week ago last Tuesday by aeroplane for Omaha, Nebraska, and points East. Mrs. Merrill received a telegram from Hastings, Neb., saying that they had arrived safely and had enjoyed every minute of the trip so far. A great deal of snow has been encountered enroute. This is the first cross country trip Mr. Merrill has made.
